MRS RICHARD WIGHTMAN

NEW YORK, May 6.—Over a tiny table in one of New York's fashionable hotels, Mrs. Richard Wightman, wife of the author, told how in a year she had made a fortune of $3.000,000 from a $15.000 investment in a New Mexican mine and organized and managed a $1,000,000 corporation.

"One evening a year ago, my husband met a man from the southwest who offered him part ownership in a mine in New Mexico," she said. "He brought the man to our home in Connecticut and before I knew it I had invested $15,000 in the proposition. I went to the mines and immediately as with the possibility of consolidating his two mines with five or six adjacent mines.

Notifies France and Britain She Cannot Admit Correctness of Their View.

Christiania, Norway, via London, May 6. Norway formally notified the British and the French governments today that she cannot admit the correctness of their interpretation of The Hagne 1967 convention regarding seizures of neutral mails at sea. The Norwegian government has lodged a formal complaint at London and Paris, stating that the action of the allied governments in seizing Norwegian mails is against the interests of neutral nations.

The Norwegian protest against the seizure of mails at sea by Great Britain and France follows similar protests made by the United States and Holland. On April 13, the allied governments made a joint reply to the United States, maintaining that the seizure of neutral mails violated no treaty rights and asserting the intention of the allies to continue the practice.

A second protest was filed in London and Paris by Holland on April 17, invluding a demand for the restitution of detained Dutch mails and indemnity. So far as has been made public no reply has yet been made by France or Great Britain to this protest.
